As the fog closed in on Cazenovia's Buckley Field Saturday, so closed another season for the Cazenovia Varsity football team. The final game was hardly exciting as the Lakers swamped the Camden Blue Devils 70-0.

The game also marked the close of the careers of 16 seniors. Four seniors, John Dougherty, Mark Newton, Chris Goldacker, and Dennis McCarthy spent three years with the Laker Varsity.

Six players, Mike Volo, Mark Omans, Steve Dunne, Rick Hoftalen, Dennis Gregg and Pat Race were with the team for two seasons. Six others, Dave Sheridan, Doug Bullock, Steve Horstmyer, Fred Hirt, Bob McDermott and Pat Green had one year with the Varsity.

The 1974-1975 Basketball season for Cazenovia was a rebuilding year, returning just one starter.

Although the team failed to achieve a winning record, all five starters were among the league leaders in scoring, Bill Gabor 5th, Ken Mahoney 10th, Mark McCarthy 17th, Chris Curtis 21st, Greg Butler 27th.

The 75-76 future indeed looks bright, as Caz returns three starters, Bill Gabor, Greg Butler, and Mark McCarthy.

The 1974-75 Cazenovia Varsity Wrestling Team won their second Tri-Valley League Championship in the last three years. Under Coach Morse, they compiled an impressive 11-4 seasonal record that brought their three year total to 38-6. Four matmen achieved 20 match victory seasons in leading their teammates to the Western Division Central New York Wrestling League Championship and The Beaver River Tournament Championship, in addition to the Tri-Valley Title. Jeff Nourse (24-5), Ric Davis (27-7), Doug Bullock (26-4) and Dennis Barden (26-6) were joined by Mike Teitsch (19-7-2) on the Tri-Valley League All-Star Team. Bullock and Davis established school records with 85 career wins for Bullock and 27 seasonal wins for Davis.

After finishing 3-15 last year, the Varsity Hockey team, under coach Jim Riedl, displayed quite a turn-around, reaching the semi-final round of the Section III playoffs before being stopped by Ithaca. Their overall record was 13-7-1. There were eleven Seniors on the team: forwards Tim Barrows, John Churchill, Rusty Goldacker, Dennis Gregg, Steve Horstmyer, Mark Newton, Fred Phelps, and Dave Sheridan, defenseman Jeb Baumbach, and goalies Rick Huftalen and Pat Race. Gregg and Goldacker both finished high in league scoring.

The Cazenovia Laker Cross-Country Team, led by senior Mike Teitsch, ran to a successful 4-2 season. However, look for them to improve in years to come as several dedicated underclassmen return for next year's squad.

The Laker Tennis Team placed three of its members on the All-League squad after completing a .500 season. The honor was given to Jeff Rubenstein, David Winslow and Mark Newton.

Cazenovia's track team lost several outstanding performers to graduation, but look for the return of their three excellent jumpers: David Hill, Dennis Davis and Peter Eckberg. These three combined to place first in the annual Section III, Class B "Jump-a-thon."

Cazenovia's golf team established themselves as one of the most successful teams in our school in recent years. With a two-year record with the loss of six seniors, the golfers will be hard-pressed to repeat the efforts of the past. The team will be lead this year by seniors John Churchill, Bob Daggett, and Ken Mahoney. Much Assistance should come from junior Mark Englert.

Cazenovia's baseball program should look up this year. There are 12 lettermen returning to the varsity team, plus a crop of juniors up from the fine, league-winning Junior Varsity, who will greatly contribute to the team. Leadership should come from seniors Chris Curtis, Steve Dunne, Dale Marris, Dennis Gregg, and John Dougherty.

Both the Frosh and J.V. Football had winning records and several outstanding individuals. These people should supply the Varsity with plenty of help in years to come and continue the great Football tradition at Caz.

The J.V. B-Ball team under coach DeHaas, did not fare well in the record dept, but the steady improvement of the players was encouraging. If this all-sophomore team continues to improve, so should their record in years to come. The Freshmen team had to change its coaches in mid-season because the sickness of Coach Guley. Mr. Cliffe took over and guided them for the remaining season.

The JH. and JV wrestling teams posted 9 - 1 and 8 - 7 records respectively. For Junior High mentor Schmit, it brought his five year total to 41 - 8. Keith Callahan, Caz's fine 105-pounder, finished first in the JV tourney and was undefeated in dual meets. Captain Jim Lucas posted a fine 12 - 3 record to help Coach Kopp bring home a winning season.

Cazenovia's Indoor Track Club took on a new look this year as several girls joined the team. School records were broken by Peter Eckberg in the triple and broad jumps and Dennis Davis in the high jump.

Coach Bonazzi proved his worth as his team won the Junior High championship. Outstanding runners Scott Rudesill and Jim Virgo finished first and second in the league meet.

Girls' Softball ended the season with a 3 - 5 record. They started league play with a 34 - 2 loss to VVS in a "wind-storm," but later had decisive wins. Although they had difficulty with "Morse" concepts, they hold the league championship for sideline water bottle fights!

Varsity Basketball had a frustrating season - winning one game and narrowly losing to high-ranked Camden. Our teams learned not to make faces at the referee, fake injuries, or "gun" from three feet out! J.V.'s had a 4 - 3 record and showed much promise, especially during initiations!

The J.V. Volleyball Team has yet to lose a game and is being coached by rookie Betty Mulbury. Their team is placing much importance on Adidas and fake-outs, whereas the Varsity prefers to utter corruptive comments as they strive to beat the J.V.'s. Our coaches feel that both teams have the potential to do well in league play.

The Varsity Girls Field Hockey Team, in only its second year of existence, scored its first goal in history and went on to improve last year's record. Their future indeed looks bright.

The Girls Cross Country Team topped a successful season by capturing the important Tri-Valley Invitational Track Meet. They finished the season with a 6-1 record.

In their first year the Varsity Girls Track Team sent three girls, Kathy Koerner, Jill Hardesty, and Annette Braun to the Section finals. Losing only a few girls to graduation, the Lakers look to improve upon their performance of last year.

The girls Varsity Tennis Team marched to a second place finish in the Tri-Valley League with a 6-1 record. In addition, Carol Weinheimer placed second in Section III and the doubles team of Conkie Christakos and Sue Cowherd finished first in this prestigious tournament.

Freshmen Place In Competition

L. Quigley, K. Zupan, K. Donaldson, K. Munro, K. Dunaldson, D. Coe, S. Helbig, C. Tennent.

The future looks bright for Cazenovia cheerleading. Losing only four seniors to graduation: Terri Sweetland, Vickii Christensen, Katy Dady, Jennifer Waibel, the squad will be led by a host of this year's sophomores. The J.V. and Varsity squads return a total of fifteen sophomores for next year. By proving their skill in interscholastic competition, this year's freshman squad brightened the Caz cheerleading horizon. They placed fourth among teams from all Central New York at a workshop in Oriskany Falls.

These twenty-two select athletes have brought Cazenovia much glory in the past year. Their election to Tri-Valley League All-Star teams is a great tribute to their ability, dedication, and sportsmanship. We would like to express our thanks to these defenders of the honor and reputation of Cazenovia Central School.

Memories

Life is like a swift — flowing stream that never stops running.

As I drop in a pebble, I see the past in Ever — widening circles that revolve but never stop.

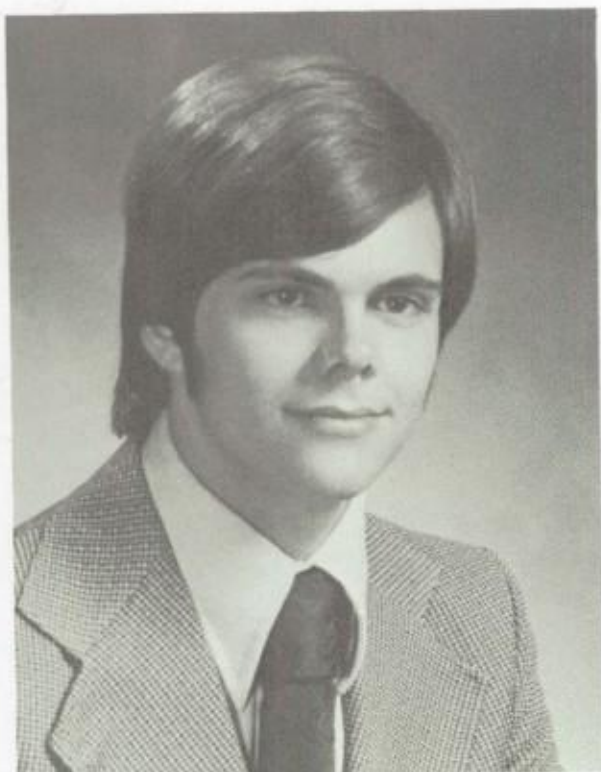

In the first ripple there are memories of hot summer hopsctch games on the sidewalk — dandelions and popsicles — sun streaming down — popping tar bubbles on hot country roads — skipping rope, jumping, climbing, and falling ...

But then the first ripple becomes the second wave of life — in between young and old — friends, fall — going to school between the falling leaves — rustling whispers — singing and dancing, living for the next carefree day ...

But now we are caught by a twig upstream, floating like a piece of insignificant flotsam as the bends and curves ahead lead us who — knows — where; we cannot yet perceive the clear stream ahead, moss and bubbles and weeds have become muddy whirlpools of choking seaweed fingers holding us back in time and suspending us in a stagnant whirlpool ...

Yet soon, one by one, we will be set free and allowed to float freely, each of us choosing his own whirlpool of life in which lies our destiny. And there we will remain, unless Fate pushes us ever onward in the eternal stream of life.

On October 31, 1974, the Class of '75 did something never before attempted by any other Seniors. They dressed up in Halloween costumes, skipped through halls, carried lollypops, and in general, acted nutty.

The costumes ranged from Groucho Marx to bobby-sockers to African hunters, to name a few. And don't forget Roller-derby queens staggering through the halls trying not to tip over. And the debate in Mr. Farnsworth's office over the appropriateness of our attire. How could we ever forget the parade through the Elementary Cafeteria, and the party 6th period in the lounge, complete with bobbin' for apples. But after all the confusion and mass hysteria were over, no harm was done.

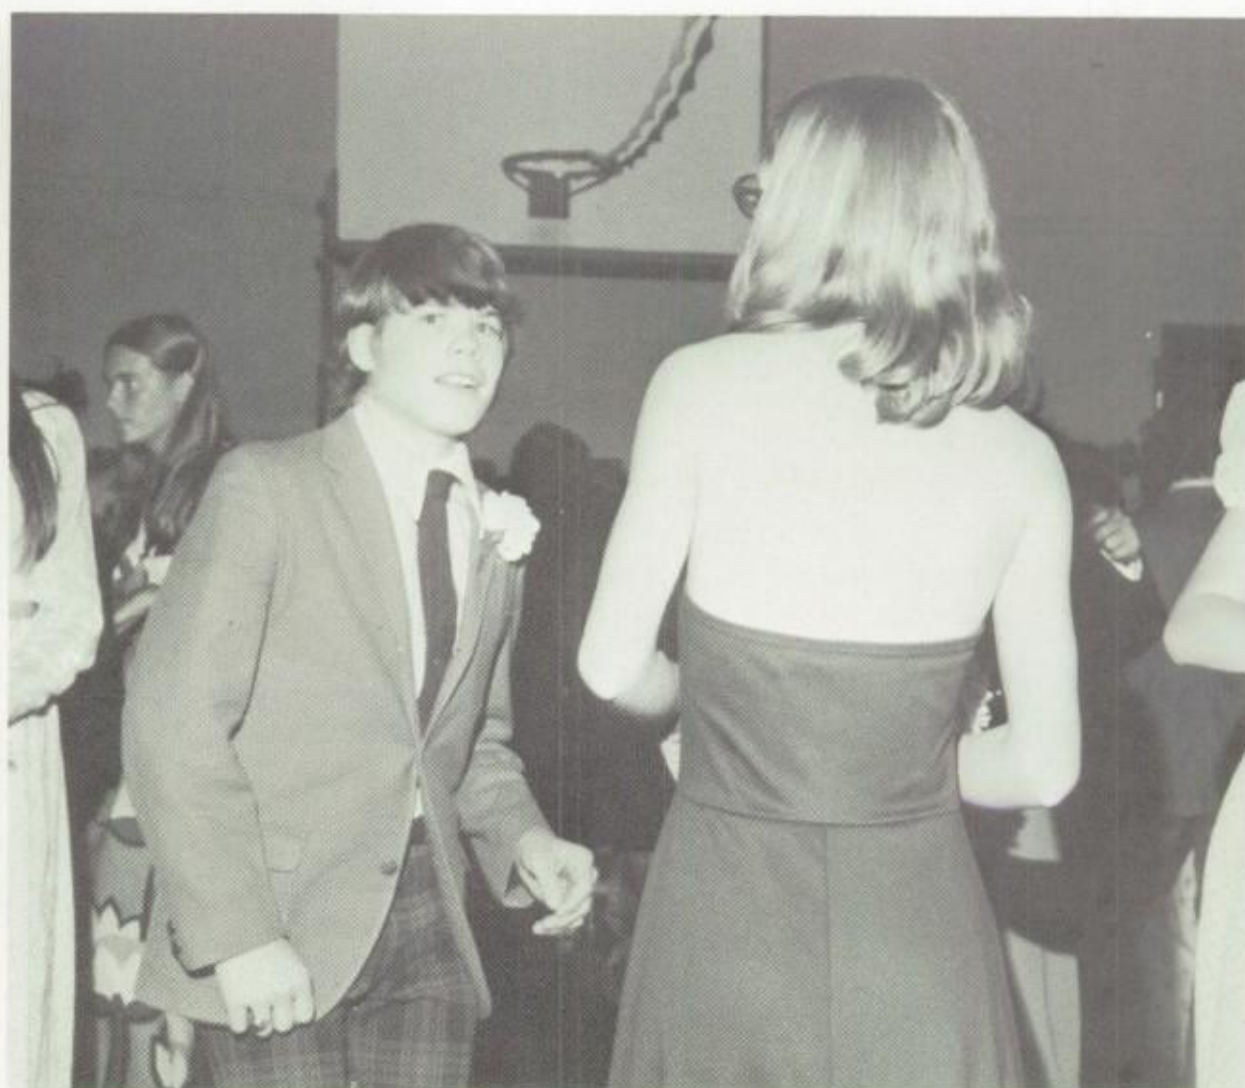

Remember the Prom; that swinging night at Gatsby's. Remember getting out of class all day Friday to "help set up", and buying every inch of crepe paper in the county.

For some it was that "first big date", or that beautiful "one night fling", and oh, don't forget the strange imported dates.

And then there was the "huge" group that turned out for clean-up.

With the Prom gone and only memories left, one question remains: Where was Robert Redford?

WE FINALLY GOT THE
NOW
SOME BODY ASK MR
LIGHTCAP TO TURN UP
AT LEAST OUR P.. IS NOT A H

Like every class before us, we had a great outdoor lounge. As a special feature we had "home-made" picnic tables courtesy of Ag. I. This lounge was fantastic, when the weather agreed. If not, the whole school became the "senior lounge". To the dismay of the teachers, Seniors would lounge in every third floor staircase, in the library, in 301, in the hall in front of the library (after being kicked out), or any other space big enough to hold three or four bodies. In short, the only place that was not the indoor lounge was the gym lobby, the one place that was supposed to be the lounge. If we left the school and the teachers with nothing else, we left them saying, "THIS IS NOT THE SENIOR LOUNGE."

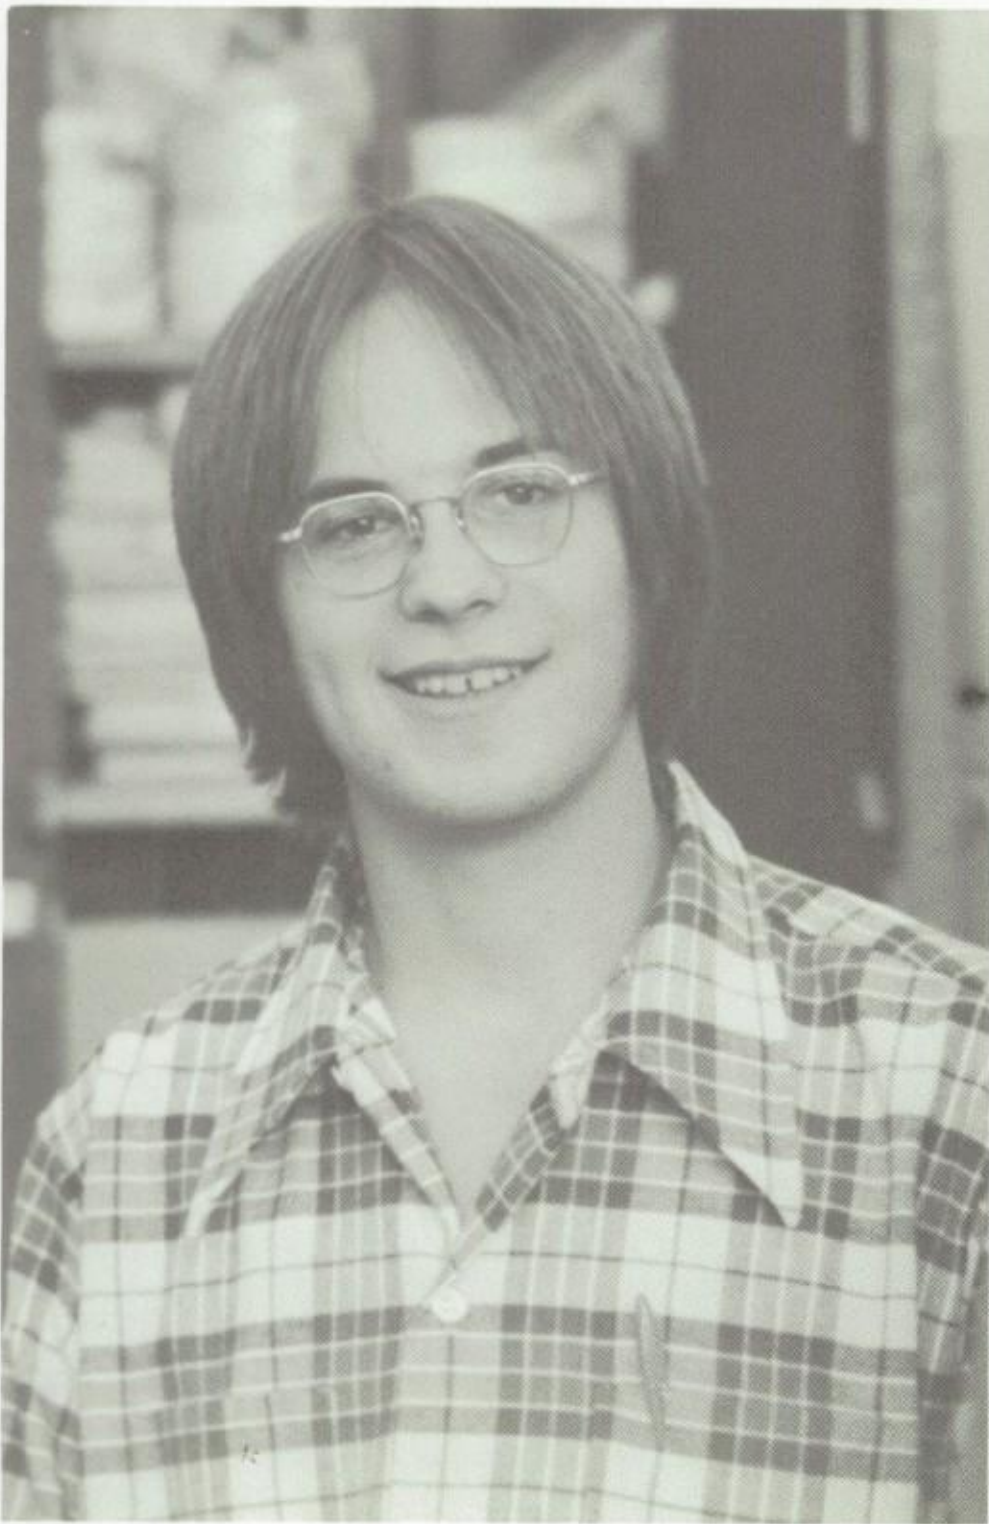

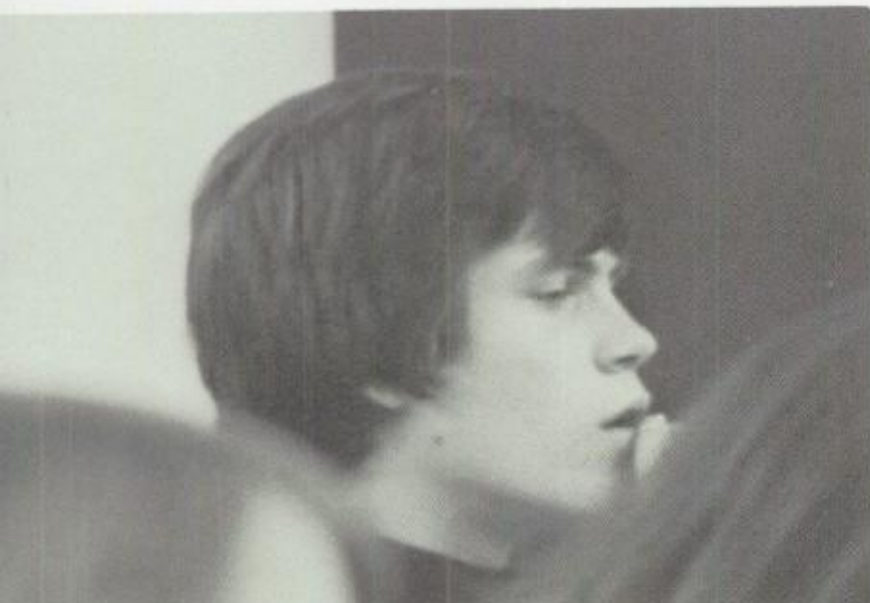

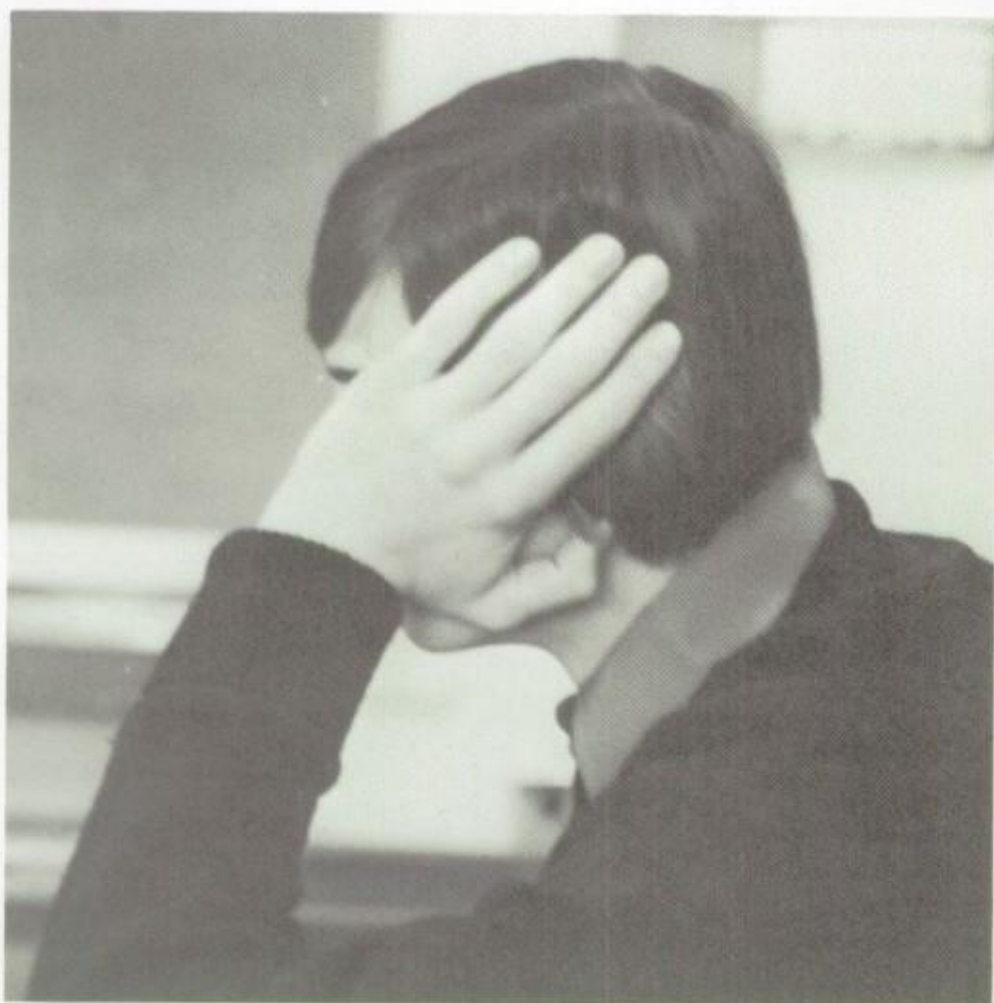

Digging the number is a great tradition established in 1968. Every year the whole class goes up on the hill and in one night, amidst "the partying", the whole number is dug. Unfortunately in our case the whole class didn't show, as a matter of fact there was no party. Heck, it even took us three tries to finish the number. But of those who participated who can forget scattering every time we saw a light, and the cop looking at our cars parked at the school, or Mr. Lightcap and Mr. Medbury telling us. "Do a nice job boys and we'll put some nice white stones in there? Speaking for all who did work on that night of July 4, we hope the rest of you had fun, being served in the Colony.

"Somebody said that it couldn't be done, but he with a chuckle replied that "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one who wouldn't say so till he'd tried. So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin on his face. If he worried he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing that couldn't be done, and he did it."

My Lost Youth

I remember the gleams and glooms that dart
 Across the school-boy's brain;
 The song and the silence in the heart,
 That in part are prophecies, and in part
 Are longings wild and vain . . .
 And the friendships old and the early loves
 Come back with a Sabbath sound, as of doves
 In quiet neighborhoods . . .
 And with joy that is almost pain
 My heart goes back to wander there,
 And among the dreams of the days that were,
 I find my lost youth again.

"IF YOU can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise; . . .

... If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
 If you can think — and not make thoughts your aim;
 If you can meet with triumph and disaster
 And treat those two impostors just the same;
 If you can beat to hear the truth you've spoken
 Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
 Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
 And stoop and build 'em up with worn out tools; ...

... If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings — nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run —
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!"

The Unseen Playmate

When children are playing alone on the green
In comes the playmate that never was seen.
When children are happy and lonely and good,
The Friend of the Children comes out of the wood.

Nobody heard him and nobody saw,
His is a picture you never could draw,
But he's sure to be present, abroad or at home,
When children are happy and playing alone.

He lies in the laurels, he runs on the grass,
He sings when you tinkle the musical glass;
Whene'er you are happy and cannot tell why,
The Friend of the Children is sure to be by!

He loves to be little, he hates to be big,
'T is he that inhabits the caves that you dig;
'T is he when you play with your soldiers of tin
That sides with the Frenchmen and never can win.

'T is he, when at night you go off to your bed,
Bids you go to your sleep and not trouble your head;
For wherever they're lying, in cupboard or shelf,
'T is he will take care of your playthings himself!

Activities

Autumn

How memory cuts away the years
And how clean the picture comes
Of autumn days, brisk and busy;
Charged with keen sunshine.
And you, stirred with activity,
The spirit of those energetic days.

In the past year, the Drama Club has produced two successful shows. In the spring of last year, the Club put on the musical "Mame". With a cast of over 80, the show was a smashing success. In the fall of this year, the Club produced "Pure as the Driven Snow or A Working Girl's Secret". This delightful melodrama brought tears to our eyes and laughter to our hearts.

To all who have ever been in a show, you can never forget those long Sunday practices and those boring runs and re-runs. Of course, everyone gets the pre-show jitters but all that practice prepares you well. Then, there is the cast party and wishing you could do the whole thing over. It is truly an experience, never to be forgotten. A special thanks to Mrs. Wharff and Mrs. Slentz, without whom all would have been impossible.

“The A.F.S. Program — Imports and Exports of Understanding ...”

Chris

Joan

Cazenovia has been lent an international flair through the A.F.S. program. Each year several students work very hard to raise funds so that we can host a student in Cazenovia during the school year and send a student as part of the summer program.

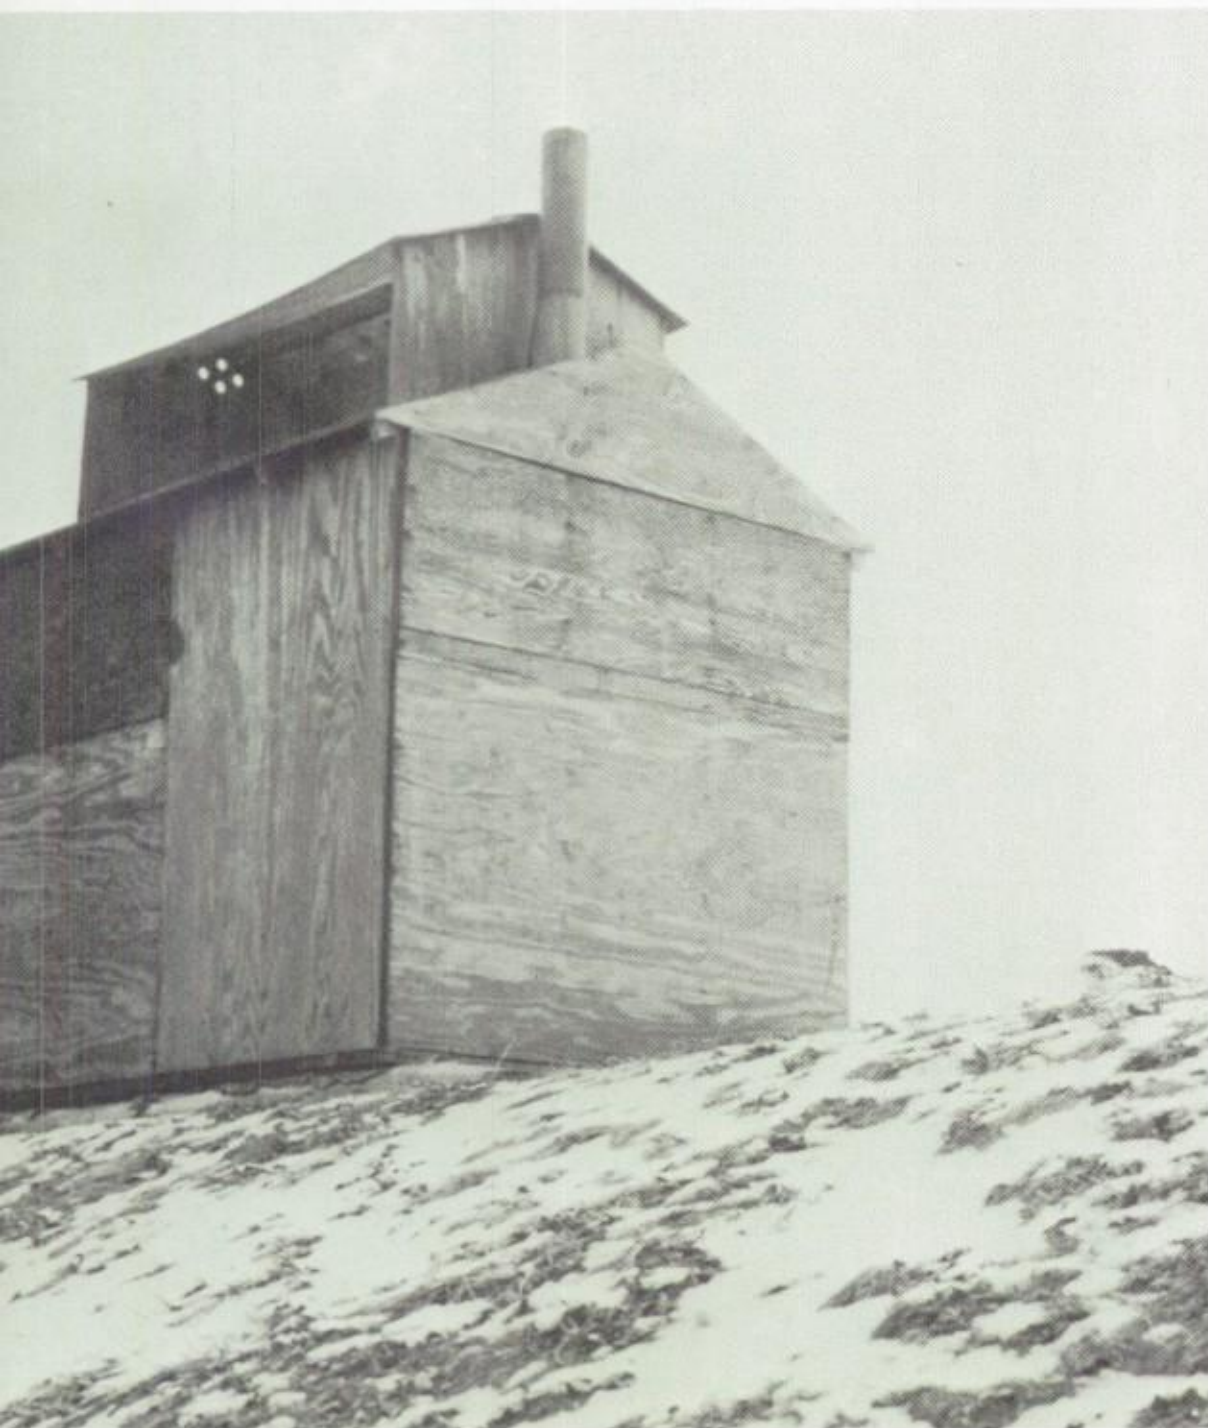

This year Cazenovia has had the privilege of hosting Christine Braure, a student from France. Living with the Houghton Carr family, Chris has been able to view American life as seen through the eyes of the average Cazenovian. Not only has Chris learned a lot, but we have had an opportunity to learn also. It has been a mutually satisfying experience that none of us will soon forget.

One member of the Senior class, Joan Eisenlord, took part in the program as a student in France last summer. Joan came back with a better understanding of the French culture, and an improved feel for the language.

A.F.S. has been a culturally enriching experience for Cazenovia through these two people during the last year.

The hope is that this book chronicles the past school year. It has been a year different from every other. So is this book-one of different faces, friends, and experiences.

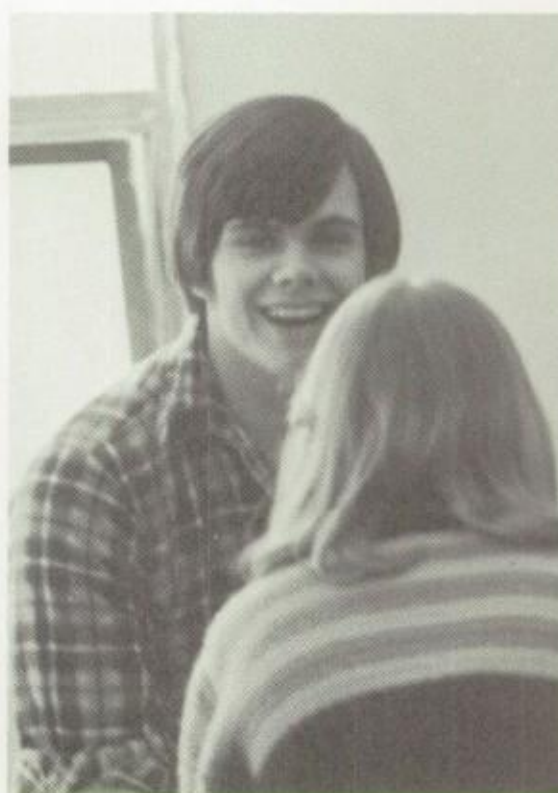

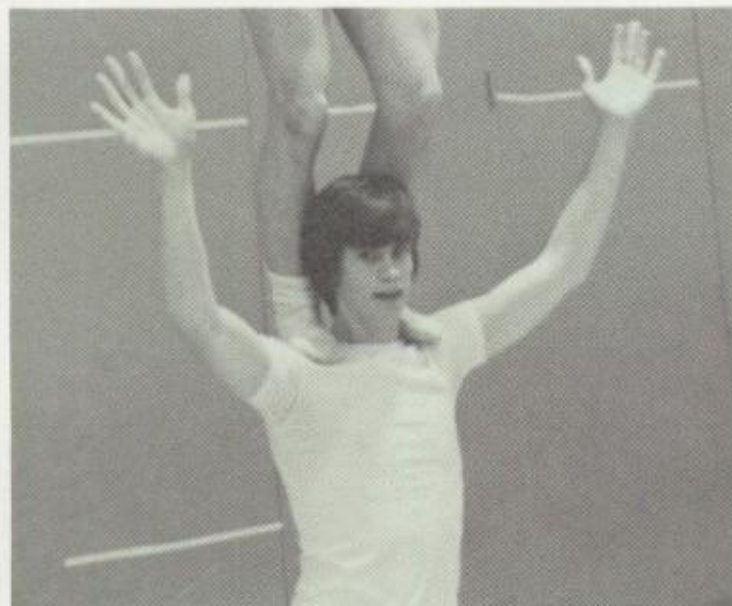

I want to thank all the kids who worked so hard on CAZ 1975. It's been a struggle, but as we wrap up the final deadline we realize that it has been worth it ... Thanks especially to Diane, Ellen Anne, and Doug for always being here to attend to all the details.

Thanks again to all the kids that helped make it a reality.

Madly,
Chris

THAT'S ALL,

BUT ONLY

FOR NOW...

Have a happy and joyful summer.
